SHELTON INSTRUCTOR NAMED TO STATE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Sherry Kirksey, director of Shelton State's Child Development Center and a member of the college's full time faculty, has been named a district representative to the board of directors of the Alabama Association for Young Children.

The AAYC is a state affiliate of the national Association for the Education of Young Children and provides information, education, and coordination relating to programs and issues affecting young children. The AAYC also works to stimulate interest in and awareness of the needs of young children in the state and to promote professional growth among people who work with young children.

SHELTON ADMINISTRATOR RECEIVES STATEWIDE RECOGNITION

Lucy Kubiszyn, director of public relations and alumni affairs for Shelton State Community college, was recently named in the 1993 communicator of the Year for the Alabama college System Public Relations Association. The announcement was made during the recent Alabama College Association meeting held in Birmingham.

The organization, or ACSPRA as it is commonly called, is composed of communication specialists from two year colleges in Alabama. Mrs. Kubiszyn served as the first president of ACSPRA in 1988 and was a member of the executive committee for five years.

SHELTON STATE TO OFFER A COURSE IN COMMON HOME PLUMBING AND HEATING REPAIRS

This month Shelton State Community College will offer a course in common home plumbing and heating repairs. This class will provide instruction in the repair and preventative maintenance of common plumbing fixtures, plumbing systems and home heating equipment.

This class is designed for the person who has no experience in plumbing. Timely maintenance tips will be discussed as part of the class. Repair of sinks, lavatories, commodes, tubs, garbage disposal, ice makers, forced-air heating systems and water heaters will be stressed. The course does not include unstopping of building sewers or the cleaning of septic tanks.

The class will begin on Tuesday, January 18, at 5:30 p.m. and will be taught in room 401 on the C. A. Fredd Campus. Robert Martin, a state certified master plumber with 25 years experience, will be the instructor. For additional information call Donna Ussery, 391-2434 or Robert Martin, 349-5906.

SHELTON STATE WELLNESS CENTER TO OFFER HEALTHY LIVING CLASSES

Three healthy living classes will be offered at the Shelton State Wellness Center this month, according to Milady Khoury-Murphy, director of Shelton's wellness program.

"Cooking Healthy" will be offered weekly beginning Monday, January 24. This class will be taught at the wellness center from 7-8 p.m. The cost of the course is $50.00. Another course that will be offered for five consecutive weeks beginning Thursday, January 27, is "Overcoming Overeating." This class will be taught by Julie Massey and will be held from 7-8 p.m. The cost is $50.00.

The third course offered by the wellness center this month is "Downtown Bench and Body Sculpting," and it will be taught on Tuesdays and Thursdays for 10 weeks beginning January 25. The class will be held at Studio One, located downtown next to Fredd's and will be offered from 12 noon until 1 p.m. The cost for the 10 weeks is $40.00. For additional information on these and other Healthy Living Classes, contact Dr. Khoury Murphy at the Wellness Center, 391-2394.

SHELTON GOLF TEAM RANKED 17TH IN NATION

The Shelton State golf team has recently been notified by the National Junior College Athletic Association that it has received preseason ranking of 17th in the United States.

"This is the first time that the Shelton State golf program has been ranked nationally," said Shelton golf coach Jim Collins. "This is certainly a proud moment in our program. It's an honor to be in the poll. Now we have to play up to that level. However, we hope that by spring we will be ranked in the top 10 teams." Collins said.

Three Alabama teams are already listed in the top 10 rankings for two year colleges in the United States. Central Alabama Community College is ranked second; Wallace College at Dothan is sixth and Wallace State Community College at Hanceville is ranked ninth nationally.

RONNIE ROSE NAMED DEAN

Ronnie Rose was recently named dean of human resources and federal programs for Shelton State community College, according to Shelton State president Tom Umphrey.

Before the merger with Shelton last February, Rose served as interim president of Fredd State Technical College. He also served as administrative head (1990-91) and business manager (1973-1990) at Fredd State. From 1970-72, he was assistant business manager at Stillman College. Born in Leeds, Alabama, Rose is a graduate of Alabama State University and has done graduate work at the University of Alabama, Alabama A & M University, and Livingston University.

Rose has served on the board of directors for West Alabama Chamber of Commerce and has served on the Educational Task Force for the Chamber. He is a member of the Technical Colleges Presidents' Association, National Association of Colleges and Universities Business Officers, Association of School Business Officers, and is a past president of the Alabama State Business Officers Association. He has served on the executive board for the Tuscaloosa Chapter of the NAACP and is former president of the Y Men's Club-Barnes Branch YMCA. He has also served as treasurer for the Alabama State University Alumni Association. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa and represented Shelton this past fall as a Loaned Executive for the Tuscaloosa United Way Campaign. Rose is married to Marion J. Rose, and they have two children, Timothy and Tara. Rose and his family are members of St. Paul United Methodist Church.
